Crying Eyes

Crying Eyes
Written by. Danny Mote

Well I wonder what to do
As I sit and stare at you and I wonder what to say
If you should ever walk this way
As the wind blows through the air
I feel a chill go through the air
I'd like to put my arms around you
And let you know that love is there

For I got Crying Eyes for you
Cring Eyes just for you
Makes no difference what you do
I still got Crying Eyes for you

As I pass you in the park
My Crying Eyes begin to start
Following you each place you go
And you don't even know

That I got Crying Eyes for you
Cring Eyes just for you
Makes no difference what you do
I still got Crying Eyes for you

Yes got Crying Eyes for you
Cring Eyes just for you
Makes no difference what you do
I still got Crying Eyes for you
Makes no difference what you do
I still got Crying Eyes for you
