This Means War

Nickelback

To line up to the ring
For a battle that you can't win
Swing as hard as you can swing
It will still mean nothing
Should've seen it coming
It had to happen sometime
But you went and brought a knife
To an all out gunfightAnd the only thing to save
Is the banner that you wave
To be wrapped around your graveYou've gone too far, who do you think you are
Is this what you came for, well this means warSay anything you want
But talk will get you nowhere
The only thing you brought is psychological warfare
Well there's no getting off
And now you got to wonder
Who will dig you out when you're six feet underAnd the only thing to save
Is the banner that you wave
To be wrapped around your graveYou've gone too far, who do you think you are
Is this what you came for, well this means warAnd the only thing to save
Is the banner that you wave
To be wrapped around your graveYou've gone too far, who do you think you are
Is this what you came for, well this means war
This means war
