Beyond Recognition

Threat Signal

all hail the face of abomination, deceive the mind of those who are send to fight, who live thier lives to die alone we will succeed when you quit, the nation lost its patients lie us into war, trade blood for oil, we count the days emancipate from the sea of lies, awaken and recognize the fate of mankind apocaluptic decay, degeration of all life as we know it, waste away live to die another day walking through this hell you've made our tears cannot be repaid slit through the wrist the blood running down your finger tips i'd rather die than be enslaved you're planting the seeds of hate for generations, avoiding reality

beyond recognition

i'm reaching out toward's the sky, begging for the answers to see the truth, why they deserve to die the innocent blood will shred, eratication, killing for your country beyond recognition
