Anyone Out There

Stan SB

She's gone, but not for long.
She made her choices, and they were wrong.
So struggle, all you want,
'Cause they won't hear you, they don't care.[Chorus]
It's easy, but don't you try,
It's a pointless, way to die,
I don't see you, when I open my eyes
I need to be near you,
Is anyone out there?(Faded)
Is anyone out there?
Is anyone out there?
Is anyone out there?She's leaving, but she don't know why,
Finds a bottle, to ease her mind,
She starts screaming, and she starts to cry,
She knows she's alone now,
Is anyone out there?(Faded)
Is anyone out there?
Is anyone out there?She remembers, the man she lost,
She will find him, whatever the cost,
She knows that, the road is long,
But she needs him, she don't care.Reunited,
Wrong time, wrong place,
A tombstone in the rain,
No kisses, and no embrace,
Forced to her knees,
And loses faith,[Chorus]
It's easy but, don't you try
It's a pointless, way to die,
I don't see you, when I open my eyes,
I need to be near you,
Is anyone out there?(Faded)
Is anyone out there?
Is anyone out there?
Is anyone out there?
