MayFly

Rasputina

The fly of May
It lives one dayWhen that day is done
MayFly does not complain
It flies into the setting sun
It goes back to the place from which it cameThe fly of MayAsk how, ask why
One day MayFly
That's all you get
You give no thought to itMe, my life is long
With reasons few like you
When I go and when I'm gone
I will understand these things I never knewThe fly of MayOne day, one day
One day, it's long enough
If you really think about itThe fly of May
It lives one dayThe fly
One day
Of May
One dayThe fly
One day
Of May
One dayIt lives
One day
One day
One dayThe fly of May
