Release From Agony

Destruction

I am caught in a dream and I am trying to pass through.
Something insane is on the prowl uncertainty is frightening me.
It will get me. It will choke me.
Screaming in my bed in agony
when I hear the clock
I have got to wake up
cause falling back asleep
means to get in his trap
Release from Agony
Release from Agony
This nightmare surrounds me
I am prepared for the worst Captured timeless in the darkness one second seems like eternity
It will get me. It will choke me.
Screaming in my bed in agony
when I hear the clock
I have got to wake up
cause falling back asleep
means to get in his trap
Release from Agony
Release from Agony
Getting in state of panic this can't be just imagination Iam praying to be awake
I don't want to face this vicious circle I know this nightmare will revert it is driving me to despair
My refuge will be reality
Release from Agony!
It will get me. It will choke me.
Screaming in my bed in agony
when I hear the clock
I have got to wake up
cause falling back asleep
means to get in his trap
Release from Agony
