Verse One

Every bone is a beat is a tambourine
Every heart is a chain is a backwards thing
In a phone booth singing like a saw tooth
Waving like a windmill I can swear I saw you
Sinking like the moon

Chorus

Pick it up
There's a love
Pick it up
There's a love
Pick it up

Verse Two

Every heart is a chain is a drum machine
Every lung is a song is a dancing thing
In a phone booth singing like a saw tooth
Waving like a windmill I can swear I saw you
Sinking like the moon

Bridge

Keep dancing like a firecracker
On the moon on the fourth of July
Keep screaming like a bomb exploding tonight
