

Girlfriend

Ashanti

Boy if I was your girlfriend
I would let you touch everything that I am
Boy if I was your girlfriend
I wouldn't mind getting crazy baby
I could be yours if I was your lady I could see you when I close my eyes
I could feel you, I could touch you, I could taste you babe
While I'm in between these sheets laying wide awake
I'm here thinking about this love I would love to make Oh, I cannot fantasize about you babe
And there's no other way that I could say it I just wanna be
You and me, you and me, you and me
Hey baby if I was your Boy if I was your girlfriend
I would let you touch everything that I am
Boy if I was your girlfriend
I wouldn't mind getting crazy baby
I could be yours if I was your lady I could almost feel your body over mine
As you run your finger tips right across my spine
Oh, ain't nothing I won't do to make you mine
I would let you take control of what I have inside I could feel your heart beating right next to mine
And everything you feel I can see it in your eyes
This could be, you and me, you and me, you and me
Hey baby if I was your Boy if I was your girlfriend
I would let you touch everything that I am
Boy if I was your girlfriend
I wouldn't mind getting crazy baby
I could be yours if I was your lady If I was your girlfriend
I would give you everything boy
If I was your girl, girlfriend
Yes, yes, give all of me to you Boy if I was your girlfriend
I would let you touch everything that I am
Boy if I was your girlfriend
I wouldn't mind getting crazy baby
I could be yours if I was your lady If I was your girlfriend
If I was your girlfriend
If I was your girlfriend
If I was your girlfriend
If I was your girlfriend
