Takedown

The Extremist

I break through what you view,
Just a counteract.
Kamikaze crash dive when I fight back.What you gonna do?
What you gonna say?
When I wipe the smile right off of your face.Right now!
Break out!
Takedown!I wanna take you down,
I wanna take you out.
I wanna be the one to break your dignity.
And all your empty pride, will rot the hole inside.But you'd make a beautiful suicide.Don't speak double think,
Who you push around.
You're mistaken if you're thinking that I'll back down.What you gonna do?
What you gonna say?
When I give back all the hate you've made.Right now!
Break out!
Takedown!I wanna take you down,
I wanna take you out.
I wanna be the one to break your dignity.
And all your empty pride, will rot the hole inside.But you'd make a beautiful suicide. (3x)
