Everything (feat. Alex Vargas)

Believe in Giants

All that we were,
just "streaks" on the sky,
We watched it suffer,
we never aked why,
Without text to the world
we just waited to fall.

There was no warning,
only the moaning.

Even though you knew your heart was in it,
you let me trail just to find out my limit
All of the things that you want, I can't give it,
I leave it on you,
And I want it everything, everything
that I couldn't have.

And I know that you heard it,
as you walked out the door.
I couldn't have it all,
you wouldn't give me more.
The time that it takes,
to heal this a case.
I thought things were right
you didn't see it that way.

Even though you knew your heart was in it,
you let me trail just to find out my limit.
All of the things that you want I can't give it,
I leave it on you.
And I want it everything, everyting,
that I couldn't have.

And I want it everything, everyting,
that I couldn't have.

And I want it everything, everyting,
that I couldn't have.
