Go On and Cry

Bloodstone

Ladies, I want to bring something to your attention
Something you probably overlook
And that is a man can hurt just as hard and deep as you can
You see I had a lady in the past that hurt me real bad
And I needed someone to talk in a very serious way
So I went to the best friend I had - huh and that's my mother
And she said cry, you go on and...
Go on and cry my son
Cry till your tears are done
I know it is hard for you to see that it really wasn't meant to be
But you'll find love again maybe the next time you win
So go on and fall apart
I know she broke your heart
You gave you all that you could
So let this be understood
Cause things didn't work out as plan doesn't make you less of a man
Go on and cry cry
You go on and cry - go on and cry
You go on and cry - go on and cry
You go on and cry - go on and cry
You go on
Go on and cry my son
Cry till your tears are done
Go on and cry for now, things will work out somehow
Oh you'll find love again maybe the next time you win
Maybe the next time you win
Go on and cry you go on and cry
You go on and cry
Go and cry, my son
You go on and cry
Everything's gonna be alright
You go on and cry
Don't be ashame to cry my son
You go on and cry
So let the tears fall let it fall like rain my son
You go on and cry
Yeah yeah yeah go on and cry
You go on and cry
Go on, go on and cry

You go on and cry
Oooh go on
Yes yes yes
You see I will never forget that moment (go on and cry)
When my mother turned to me and said son if you feel in your soul (let the tears fall from your eyes)
And if you feel it in your heart (go on and cry) go on and cry
Just because things did not work out as plan doesn't make you any less as a man - go on and cry
So go on and cry let it out, go on let it out let it all out
You go on and cry
Yeah yeah you go on and cry
Go on, go on and cry my son
You go on and cry
