

She's an Actress?

Park Ave.

I sit here patiently, I'm waiting for another pose
Looking straight at the camera
But she doesn't know what it's for
But she smiles anyway She starts to lose her trust
And her wandering eyes look straight ahead
She's staring back into mine
She hasn't noticed yet She looks in the corner, she stops
She sees a man in back
Slowly approaching, she's not scared
It's one more, she's lost so many now
She's losing track, she's lost track again
This time it's for good Well, the future's in this line
And I'm sorry if you've forgotten
I guess it's gonna be another night all alone
Practice your line again and again
Is there anything I can do for you now? The director is angry again, he sits in his chair
I look at him, he's staring down at me
He sees the point but he's not pleased
Kid, you're not here to love, you're here to act
Don't be concerned You're just here to talk and look ready
You better memorize that line
Or ask her to leave with you now 'Cause the future's in this line
And I'm sorry if you've forgotten
I guess it's gonna be another night all alone
Practice your line again and again
Is there anything I can do for you now?
Is there anything I can do for you now?
Is there anything I can do for you now? Well, I know it's been hard
You've listened with your sympathy
All the complaints of what I didn't have are gone And the summer hasn't passed
We'll stay up late on weeknights
And we will rest again at school
And we will be fine and we will be fine
I swear well be fine

Lyrics provided by

<https://damnllyrics.com/>