

The Running Man

W.A.S.P.

You'll be so far out of control
You know, the ones you saved Look in my eye cause somehow you
You don't realize what I made You can't run away from me
Don't deny your blind believers
And hide your Devil's keeper Take your love away from me
'Cause I will blind your heathen reason
And ride us on your broken wings for love True we are disciples lost
You know the promise you made
Look in my eyes and tell me why
You realize the price that you'll pay? Number nine, number nine, number nine
I'm still inside of
The nine asylums
Am I Messiah? You're the only God they know What are you running from Wasn't this enough
Aren't you satisfied?
They're all at your feet
The Lord to sheep
Oh, are you sanctified?
