Grey

Canaan

Let the light regenerate its power to heal is in the silver and the light Light to the seventhLet the darkness degenerate its power to hurt is in the gold and the dark darkness to the ninthLet the grey submerge its power to forgot is in the fire and the grey grey to the fifthLet the red heal its power to regenerate is in the liquid and the red red to the eleventhLet this life wipe you away wipe your image away bring your memory back to the white immaculate sands of a self-destructing eveGrey to the end Grey to this sweet end
