

Soon As I Fall

Bronze Radio Return

So here we are on the edge and looking down
It's here and now, the tick of time is getting loud
You can try, you can try
To have it any way that you like
But you won't know, you won't know
'Til there's nothing there to catch you Oh Oh, as soon as I fall
I'll know, just as soon as I fall Full of doubt, the outside looking in Waiting for you to hang it up and try again
With a hand on your back, gives a pat
But they don't come around
So it goes, so it goes
Let us jump and just forget it all [Chorus:]
Oh Oh, as soon as I fall
I'll know, as soon as I fall
Into or away from it all
I'll know, just as soon as I fall Dropping fast, moving like a landslide
An avalanche, tearing up a hillside
You can try, you can try
To have it any way that you like
If you don't, if you don't
Then there's nothing there to catch you [Chorus:]
Oh Oh, as soon as I fall
I'll know, as soon as I fall
Into or away from it all
I'll know, just as soon as I fall Here we are, here we go, dropping off and looking out below
Here we are, here we go, we can't undershoot or overthrow [Chorus:]
Oh Oh, as soon as I fall
I'll know, as soon as I fall
Into or away from it all
I'll know, just as soon as I fall Oh Oh, as soon as I fall
I'll know, as soon as I fall
Oh Oh, as soon as I fall
I'll know, I'll know, I'll know
