

Just Walkin' Out the Door

Willie Nelson

I was just walkin' out the door
It's too bad you didn't come before
I waited so long, so long, so long
There's no time to wait any more How I cried for you day and night
For the letters that you wouldn't write
But now it's alright, alright, alright
You won't have to write any more Not so long ago, you will never know
What this day to me would have been
But it's all changed now but darling, anyhow
It was nice to see you again Well, it's almost a quarter to four
Sorry, I can't stay any more
I must be on my way, it's my wedding day
And I was just walkin' out the door
