

Tongue-Tied

Mia Doi Todd

Looking for a window into your soul
If and when I find it, will the blinds be closed? I drag me up the drainpipe
Leap for the fire ladder
Seventeen stories
And I'm still climbing higher Looking for a window into your soul
If and when I find it, will the blinds be closed? I went to Sam's Camera
To buy binoculars
Took home a tall telescope
Ten thousand times power Looking for a window into your soul
If and when I find it, will the blinds be closed? I set up on a rooftop
Just across the way
In the summer, sweat poured
In the winter, it was rain Looking for a window into your soul.
If and when I find it, will the blinds be closed? Looking for a window into your heart
If and when I find it, will the insides be dark?
Looking for a window into your mind
If and when I find it, will we both be tongue-tied?
