

Tragic Magic

Falling In Reverse

I'm back *laughter

*

So lets rewind

Back to the time

2005 i almost died

I overdosed

Well, i did not know

That i provoked

This evil ghost

DISASTER!

Magically i turned

Tragedy into melody

Sold for catchy beats

It comes so naturally

So smooth and casually

Thats why they call me king

Of the music scene

Lala lalala...

I dug a hole 10 miles wide

So i can throw all of you inside

You're such a dumb fuck

You need to shut up

You bring a picture of me every time you get your haircut

IMPOSTER!

Magically i turned

Tragedy into melody

Sold for catchy beats

It comes so naturally

So smooth and casually

Thats why they call me king

Of the music scene

Lala lalala...

*Oh, bruised and broken,

My eyes are opened

I won't lose from this,

My eyes are opened

Can you see

In the distance?

Can you see
The resistance?
We will rise,
Rise against them
From the start,
Rise against them

Magically I turned
Tragedy into melody
Sold for catchy beats
It comes so naturally
So smooth and casually
That's why they call me king
Of the music scene
Magically I turned
Tragedy into melody
Sold for catchy beats
It comes so naturally
So smooth and casually
That's why they call me king
Of the music scene
