

Take It Easy

Delbert McClinton

Take it easy lovin' me
Don't start thinkin' I'm somethin' that I'll never be Just need me, oh yeah, as much as need be
Take it easy, easy lovin' meMany's the woman who's cried herself crazy at night
Over some kind of a man, who she says ain't treatin' her right
Expectin' of someone is quick to be takin' its toll
And if your not careful you'll wake up alone and oldTake it easy, easy lovin' me
Don't start thinkin' I'm somethin' that I'll never be Just need me as much as need be
Take it easy, easy lovin' meNow dreamin' and plannin' are things I guess all must do
And sooner or later we all play the part of a fool
But those in a hurry to unpack their bags full of dreams
Are quick to be victims of the lies and the lust and the schemes
