Let It Go

GANGgajang

(G.Bidstrup/M.Callaghan)What would happen if your heart stopped working?
What would happen if you couldn't see the sun?
Would you even be concerned about the strange ways of love?Would it matter if the world stopped turning?
Could it happen - that the seas will rise?
Could it be that we all end up living in a frozen world?So when you can't explain, when you can't endure, tell me, Does it really matter anymore?Just let it go.Would it matter if you couldn't feel the heat of a fire?
That you didn't have the sense to inquire,
That everything turned out to be wrong?Just imagine if you heard no noise
Would it matter if you had no toys?
Does it matter that the road less traveled can be too long?Things are always changing, though it don't seem right But even in the darkness you can see a lightLet it go.Life is just a drop of time, in an endless sea
Let go of the wreckage,
And you can float freeLet it go.
Let it go
Let it go
Letit go
