Tuck Your Shirt In

Holly Valance

My name is Holly
And I like
I'm so glad that you asked me out tonight
Our conversation over dinner was really nice
But don't forget you still owe me dessert
It's twelve and we missed the late show
So let's head over to this joint that I know
Every time I take someone it's always such a ride
But there's a dress code
You've got to follow
There's no exceptions
And once you're in
If you want T M A
You better need to be
Quit breakin'
But before you enter
Tuck your shirt in
No way you'll get rid of
The other clothes
If you don't follow this
One moment
Tuck your shirt in
La la la la la, la
La la la la la, la
La la la la la, la, la
We're probably gonna need to call a cab
Ten minute walk over there and back
But I think it's best
We save our energy
Tonight, I'm really on the grind
Otherwise I'd normally wait a while
Before I'd ask
Somebody to my party
But there's a dress code
You've got to follow
There's no exceptions
And once you're in
If you want T M A
You better need to be

Quit breakin'
But before you enter
Tuck your shirt in

No way you'll get rid of
The other clothes
If you don't follow this
One moment
Tuck your shirt in
Ah
Uh
La la la la la, la
La la la la la, la
La la la la la, la, la
But there's a dress code
You've got to follow
There's no exceptions
And once you're in
(No)
If you want T M A
You better need to be
Quit breakin'
But before you enter
Tuck your shirt in
(Whoa, oh)
No way you'll get rid of
The other clothes
If you don't follow this
One moment
Tuck your shirt in
T M A
You better need to be
(You better)
Quit breakin'
(Ya)
But before you enter
(Ya)
Tuck your shirt in
(Oh)
No way you'll get rid of
The other clothes
If you don't follow this
One moment
Tuck your shirt in
La la la la la, la

La la la la la, la
La la la la la, la, la
