Alone

Dan Black

Some are young, some are dumb
Some wanna die
They fill the streets, broken beats
Lonely eyesBut something seems to beat in me
I just don't seem the sameI was dreaming when I saw you
I was dreaming on the avenue
I was dreaming when the bomb blew
Because this endless desire won't leave me aloneIt won't leave me alone
It will not leave me aloneSome are young, some are numb
Some wanna hide
I see beats and bins, mannequins
Lonely I, I, IBecause something seems to beat in me
I just don't seem the sameI was dreaming when I saw you
I was dreaming on the avenue
I was dreaming when the bomb blew

Because this endless desire won't leave me aloneIt will not leave me alone

It will not leave me alone It will not leave me alone

It will not leave me aloneAre you alone, alone?

Alone, alone, alone, alone

Alone, aloneI was dreaming when I saw you

I was dreaming on the avenue

I was dreaming when the bomb blew

Because this endless desire won't leave me aloneIt will not leave me alone

It will not leave me alone, alone It will not leave me alone, alone
