

Quiet Mind

Mother Falcon

If we only had
If we only had more time
Then I could separate the secrets from the shame
And I would free the memories from the plain What am I running from and for how long?
What am I working for? Just quiet In my living room
With your shoulder against mine
I had the chance to find out to who i am
But I fled back to all my simple plans What am I running from and for how long?
What am I working for? Just a quiet mind
But it's true oh
This is you Expect this expected all they saw Constellations but they are just stars to me What am I running from and for how long?
What am I working for? Just a quiet mind
But it's true oh
This is you
But it's true oh
This is you
