

Young, Single & Sexy

Rita Ora

I'm sitting here in my room waiting for you to change
With my dress and my lipstick on, you should see it on me, such a shame
But I know about the girl you called
The one from the park with the pink heels on We're damaged, uneven, broken, I'm leaving
I'm way too fly for that, yeah
I won't sit back if you want my love
You act like my love is not enough
Don't make me erase you from my phone
Cos I can always go out alone
Who said you were the first and last
Look in the mirror know what I am
They say love can lead you blind
Well not these eyes of mine
So now I don't even care, got my hands in the air
Gonna fill my tank and go
Me and all my girls gonna run around town
We can do whatever we want
Cos I'm young, single and sexy
I'm young, single and sexy
London to New York city
I'm young, single and sexy
If you're lonely on a Friday night and that's just what he gets
I been calling and calling all day, he still hasn't called me yet
And when he does it will be too late ya know
I'll be at the party hanging with my mates
Who am I to sit at home I'm too busy to wait
I'm way too smart for that
I won't sit here and go back and forth
Don't act like it's ok you just got caught
Constructors can't build this bridge back up
This is how it ends, you're out of luck
Who said you were the first and last
Look in the mirror know what I am
They say love can lead you blind
Well not these eyes of mine
So now I don't even care, got my hands in the air
Gonna fill my tank and go
Me and all my girls gonna run around town

We can do whatever we want
Cos I'm young, single and sexy
I'm young, single and sexy
London to New York city
I'm young, single and sexy
Now I can dance when I wanna (I wanna)
Clap my hands when I wanna (I wanna)
Who can say come home, out all night long, yeah
And I will not be bothered, if I wanna party till tomorrow
I'm sexy and free, thats how it should be
So come on, come on and do it with me
So now I don't even care, got my hands in the air
Gonna fill my tank and go
Me and all my girls gonna run around town
We can do whatever we want
Cos I'm young, single and sexy
I'm young, single and sexy
London to New York city
I'm young, single and sexy
So now I don't even care, got my hands in the air
Gonna fill my tank and go
Me and all my girls gonna run around town
We can do whatever we want
Cos I'm young, single and sexy
I'm young, single and sexy
London to New York city
I'm young, single and sexy
