

Love Me Instead

Kolton Moore & the Clever Few

This passion in this room is almost haunting
Your body's so sweet and so taunting
This beds never felt nothin' like this
Oh, and neither have I, neither have I

You say don't close your eyes and just lay here
But I just hold you close and sleep here
And don't worry now like I did then
Just lay here with me, and don't let this night end

Cuz I don't need fancy hair
Makeup or clothes
I don't need to know the stuff nobody knows
I don't need the lights in this room
Or the sorrows overhead
I just need to know what's lying under the bed
I just need to know
Would you love me instead

Say goodnight 100 times
But we never go to sleep
And I never thought that you and me
Oh, we'd ever be
You run your fingers through my hair
So soft, so sweet
And as I kiss you goodnight for the 100th time
I know you just wanna meet

Cuz I don't need fancy hair
Makeup or clothes
I don't need to know the stuff nobody knows
I don't need the lights in this room
Or the sorrows overhead
I don't need to know what's lying under the bed
I just need to know
Would you love me instead

Instead of hate, instead of pride
Instead of what's on my your mind tonight
Instead of then or what could've been

Just donâ€™t let it change with time
Just donâ€™t let our love change with time
Just donâ€™t let it change with time

Cuz I donâ€™t need fancy hair
Makeup or clothes
I donâ€™t need to know the stuff nobody knows
I donâ€™t need the lights in this room
Or the sorrows overhead
I donâ€™t need to know whatâ€™s lying under the bed
I just need to know
Would you love me instead
