Catalyst

Tristen

He's a catalyst. He's just making me move.
Don't you worry about forever.
There's nothing else you can do.
He's a catalyst. He's just making me sway.
Don't you worry about a lifetime.
It was meant to be this way.I'm a coward.
It didn't bother me to stay
In the place where I came from.
You know I never want to stray.
You know I never want to stray.You saw me talk to him.
You were keeping your cool.
Now I walk with him.
I see you shake in your boots.
And I'm running
But you were chasing me along.
If you stop for a breather,
You realize we don't belong.I was powerless,
The times you asked if I would stay.
I was thinking about the moment.
You know I never want to stray.
You know I never want to stray.In your heart, stay true.
And your eyes stay blue.
And you know it wasn't you.
Baby, he's a catalyst.
Baby, he's a catalyst.And I'm powerless,
If you should ask me to stay.
I only think about the moment.
You know I never want to stray.
You know I never want to stray.In your heart, stay true.
And your eyes stay blue.
And you know it wasn't you.
Baby, he's a catalyst.
Oh, baby, he's a catalyst.
Oh, baby, he's a catalyst.
