Celebration

Godiego

CELEBRATION, CELEBRATION
There is magic
All around us dreams and fantasy
The world of long ago
Though far away it may be
We're living and loving
This world we're in
We're singing and swinging down
That golden road
Our laughter echoing to the Himalayas
In the dawn of time
It will be forever told woh-oh-oh-oh-
We're celebrating, celebrating
The birth of the Odyssey
Of things so grand and free
We're celebrating, celebrating
The birth of the Odyssey
Of things so grand and free
There is magic
All around us dreams and fantasy
The world of long ago
Though far away it be
We're living and loving
This world we're in
We're singing and swinging down
That golden road
Our laughter echoing to the Himalayas
In the dawn of time
It will be forever told woh-oh-oh-oh
We're celebrating, celebrating
The birth of the Odyssey
Of things so grand and free
We're celebrating, celebrating
The birth of the Odyssey
Of things so grand and free
Our laughter echoing to the Himalayas

In the dawn of time
It will be forever told woh-oh-oh-oh
(*) We're celebrating, celebrating
The birth of the Odyssey
Of things so grand and free
We're celebrating, celebrating
The birth of the Odyssey
Of things so grand and free
* repeat
