

Diving In

Holly Drummond

V1:

i wanna go back and change every scene every word that was said just wipe our slate clean but why rewind and try to pretend we can't fix who we are what is broken won't mend but what if we'd waited instead of diving in to something that never really did begin what if we'd waited
maybe we wanted a little too much jumped with our hearts not our minds straight into love

CHORUS:
why must we try and pretend when we both know it's over oh it's over

we're dancing in circles again playing our stupid games but it's over

oh it's over

V2:

you're tired of me and i'm tired of you every word that you say every thing that you do but oh we tear each other to pieces then we come back for more
