

Mirrorball

Blur

Mirrorball on a Jordan train
I was under sea, then I forget
I did nothing Ocean park, where the sea goes crying
I remember flying reckless
I was there So before you log out
Oh, boat stream
Hold close to me I'll be back, when December comes
All the barriers of green fall down
Where is everything Oh, mirrorball, you're spinning out to sea
Think I found you in the temple square
Under a wretched dream So cry your eyes out
Oh, close to me
Hold close to me! So cry my eyes out
Oh, close to me
Hold close to me!
Hold close to me!
Hold close to me!
