

Sea To Land

Forest City Lovers

In the dark we have no bodies
we have no worries
we have no limbs Faceless secretes, that we embody no need to worry about spilled milkOh come away now Lets get you save now.
 Lets get you save now
Oh come away.In the dark callous footsteps Tread thin waters sea to land
 Empty head known to progression
Or the suggestion of an outstretched handOh come away now
 Lets get you save now.
 Lets get you save now, oh come away.
