Skinny

Htrk

So here you are in your small little world
Kept up like a little precious virgin girl
To hear about your grace and your silly face
Wrapped up like a knot in a ball of shoelace
And everytime I talk to you
It sounds like you're caught in a psychological fluDon't ever let them see you cheat
Don't' ever let them see you bleed
Don't ever let them shake your hand
Don't ever let them believe that scamSkinny
And it will make you cry
Skinny
And it will make you lie
Skinny
And it makes you soft inside
Skinny
At least you will not dieAnd if you take a good look at them
All caught up in their graciousless win
Every sin is their seamless smile
Will go on for a countless while
And just because they think they've won
It just means that the shit has just begunDon't ever let them see you cheat
Don't ever let them see you beat
Don't ever let them shake your hand
Don't ever let them believe that scamSkinny
And it will make you cry
Skinny
And it will make you lie
Skinny
And it makes you soft inside
Skinny
At least you will not dieSkinny
Skinny
