Winter

James Iha

Love will carry me over land to the sea
Take me far away to a home where I'll stay
I give you part of me and through your eyes I will see
A place where there is light and all the stars are out at night

And I came calling out your name
And I came calling out in vain
And I walk and no one knows my name
And I come will you help me find my way

There's another way if I leave here today
I'm down and I'm blue am I hearing right
Will I come find you, if I fall away in there
And I came calling out your name

And I came calling out in vain
And I walk and no one knows my name
And I come will you help me find my way
If it's over the highest peak I will go if you cover me

Oh I know I'll fail oh I know I'm weak but its you again
Over and over I hear angels singing love
I dreamed I found you, yearning tides love the moon
Hold me in your mourning light

Jesus loves the first light
