In Control

Tim Arnold

Fearless rejection
Breathing with imperfection
Living with imperfection
Listen to me when I say
That I will never get back to you
You bite the hand that was feeding youDark thoughts nailed into your fate now
Dark thoughts awaiting to shine nowI choose a way with no surrender
I choose a way with no surrenderWon't you stay away, away
I guess it's not the last time
Won't you stay away, away
I just hope it's the last timeLooking after me
I need you and you need me
But it seems you didn't read the informationDark thoughts nailed into my fate now
Dark thoughts awaiting to shine nowKeeping me calm before I explode
Keeping me calm you're keeping me closeYou don't know my determination
I'll make you feel a new sensationWon't you stay away, away
I guess it's not the last time
Won't you stay away, away
I just hope it's the last timeI need to be in control
In control of myself
In control of myself
Fearless rejection
ImperfectionWon't you stay away, away
I guess it's not the last time
Won't you stay away, away
I just hope it's the last timeI need to be in control
In control of myselfI choose a way with no surrender
I choose a way with no surrender
