Resolution

The O.C. Supertones

I've meant to do this for some time
Gotta get it right this time
This time my God I will be yours
All my heart, my soul and mindBeen so long since I truly smiled
But you touched my heart today
Reached through my mind of mud and mire
Consumed the idols in your way
So, I am brand newToday, I make my resolution
Today, I make my resolution
Today, I make my
Today, I make my resolution
Today, I make myLooking back the way I used to beBeen down so long that is seems like up
I took it now I've had enough
Of the life that I've been living
It feels so cold this far awaySo, today I will make a change
I will make a change today
Purge my mind of mud and mire
Cast all my Gods away
So I I am brand newToday, I make my resolution
Today, I make my resolution
Today, I make my
Today, I make my resolution
Today, I make myLooking back the way I used to be
It was just me and God
Can I be there again?
Today I make my resolutionToday, I make my resolution
Today, I make my
Today, I make my resolution
Today, I make my
Today, I make my resolution
