Recoil

Choke

wheels keep turning over time this doesn't sit so good a constant filth remains in seed not getting out (still lapping) bend of bind, panic of doubt stilled ambition greed's isolation imprints sleeve keep your receipt, these shoes are wearing thin molded bearings feeble stance it's all in what you ball inside the degree you bind maintained before the presence of defeat sets your trailed distinctions a pace refined to you bend to how you feel carve what is real all moments met in your life will bend tight to you, clutching you through,
dismissing luggage settled foes take time to read yourself up clean spin back vice from hold take time to repossess your needs you have and are what you're searching for worn out start looking around you're feeling the same as you portray to be complaining a disease that you won't pass to me your timing is never just set up and done your carving distinctions the pace you refine molded distinctions degree of bind hard time had by all some long some not so keep filling shoes keep signature recoil you now
