

Ali's Waltz

Beth Orton

Right now, it's feels like forever, can't wait
Right now, it's looks like tomorrow's too late
To meet those expectations
Ones that have never unknown
[Chorus]Right now, it's high not to fall out of place
You make me wrong, have I fallen from grace?
What you do for yourself, you expect to someone else
Well, I heard that love is a verb

Right now, it seems quite cold-hearted
But how did my grieving before we parted
The ground where we lay
And hope to my heart, you could stay
[Chorus]Right now, it feels like tomorrow, can't wait
Right now, it looks like forever's too late
To meet our expectations
Ones that were never unknown
