Stalemate

Ben's Brother

Did I let you down? No
Did I give you up? No
So what's it all about now?
Was it not enough? No, no, noIt's alright, yeah, it's okay, yeah
It's alright with me
I'll be fine, yeah, I don't mind, yeah
I'll pretend at leastBut if you give me something then I'll believe it
Give me something and I will wait
But if you give me nothing
I can't help feeling I'm in stalemate with you
Stalemate with youUsed to pick me up, yeah, like a sunken pill
And I've been thinking it through
And we worked so well
But it feels wrong, yeahWhen I'm strong alone, yeah, strong alone by you
And the words you say, yeah
Just to get your way, yeah
Well they just won't do, you've got toGive me something then I'll believe it
Give me something and I will wait
But if you give me nothing
I can't help feeling I'm in stalemate with you
Stalemate with youI need more, I need more
What are you waiting for?
It's so frustratingGive me something then I'll believe it
Give me something and I will wait
But if you give me nothing
I can't help feeling I'm in stalemate with you
