Michael Jordan

Along Came Man

My shirt, my hat, my books
A trip to the zoo
My couch, remote, a large Coke yeah
I'd get on my knees, my God
If I couldI would give anything
I would give anything
I would give anything
I would give anything
I would give to be you, yeahMy job, my car, my cash
My house on the hill
My piano I'd burn to ashes, yeah
I'd get on my knees, my God
If I couldI would give anything
I would give anything
I would give anything
I would give anything
I would give to be you, yeahMy voice, my worm, my wife
A first born or two
I'd give the knife, my mike if just
Cut me at the knees
My God, my JordanI would give anything
I would give anything
I would give anything
I would give anything
I would give anything
I would give anything
I would give anything
I would give anything
I would give anything
I would give to be you
