And So It Goes

Ten Feet Deep

You can't talk to me like this I'm turning red, and feel my wrist It's shakin' from your lips It's written on my face and she said"Don't tell me what to say your tongue is tied up anyway but do just as u please"I said "please come to my place" now we're going to my placeThat's the way I left my girl the second we walked in here I don't have to make it clear she already knowsIt's how it goes oh she told me so and so it goesThe snow fell, we slowed it down slow enough to turn around she spoke without a sound and sang without a wordThat's when the friend walks in she's already beneath my skin as I collect my thoughts, oh no she collects her thingsThat's the way I left my girl
the second we walked in here
I don't have to make it clear
and so it goesdo just as you please she told me do just as you pleaseThat's the way I left my girl
the second we walked in here
I don't have to make it clear
she already knows
