

No One Does It Better

You Me At Six

I woke up this morning with a grudge the size of your story

Oh, I feel, I feel so low

Let me start at the end, the part I haven't figured out yet

Yes, I am, I'm moving slow You are playing the lead

The headache that my actions feed

Oh I've only got myself to blame

Here's another test which I would fail, and at my best

Oh, always ending the same If I were an honest guy

I'd give this world another try What are we doing?

I was so in love with you

I've forgot what I wanted to say

What are we doing?

You will change your ways in time, in time If I just saved you, you could save me too

If I just saved you, then you could save me too I woke up the next morning and I didn't see it coming

Oh, your bags were packed and gone

I called all your friends and they said hadn't seen you yet

Oh, my head's going to explode If I were an honest guy

I'd give this world another try What are we doing?

I was so in love with you

I've forgot what I wanted to say

What are we doing?

You will change your ways in time, in time If I just saved you, you could save me too

If I just saved you, you could save, you could save me too I believe in the finer things, and you don't believe in me

I said, I believe in the finer things, and you don't believe in me

I said, I believe in the finer things, and you don't If I just saved you, you could save me too

If I just saved you, then you could save, you could save me too What are we doing?

I was so in love with you

I've forgot what I wanted to say

What are we doing?

I was so in love with you

I've forgot what I wanted to say If I just saved you

No one does it better,

No one does it better,

No one does it,

No one does it better

If I just saved you

No one does it,

No one does it better,

No one does it,
No one does it)I woke up this morning with a grudge the size of your story,
Which now I have told you all
