

Happy

Brandi Carlile

I don't hang around that place no more
I'm tired of wearing circles in the floor
And I don't carry myself very well
I've gotten so much braver
Can you tell I'm happy, can't you see
I'm alright,
But I miss you Amber Lee And I line my secrets up all one by one
I put 'em all away when I was done
And I would really love to hear your voice sometime
To close a little distance in my mind I'm happy, can't you see
I'm alright
But I miss you Amber Lee
Amber Lee Where have you been all these years
And how could you just disappear
And when did you stop
Missing me I'm happy, can't you see
I'm alright
But I miss you Amber Lee I'm alright,
But I miss you Amber Lee
