Happy

Brandi Carlile

I don't hang around that place no more I'm tired of wearing circles in the floor And I don't carry myself very well I've gotten so much braver Can you tellI'm happy, can't you see I'm alright, But I miss you Amber LeeAnd I line my secrets up all one by one I put 'em all away when I was done And I would really love to hear your voice sometime To close a little distance in my mindI'm happy, can't you see I'm alright But I miss you Amber Lee Amber LeeWhere have you been all these years And how could you just disappear And when did you stop Missing meI'm happy, can't you see

I'm alright
But I miss you Amber LeeI'm alright,
But I miss you Amber Lee
