Why You Always Here

Katy B

Finally, I found my sense, free from walking next
And then there you appeared
You tugged upon my sleeve, then you said follow me
But I sensed it weren't there
Can't enter golden times, you predict into my mind
Throwing away their ease as I do
I've seen your game before so try it on her
I'm bored of you
Why you always here, complaining in my ear
Singing I could give you so much more?
Why do you persist to possess my kiss
When she's the one your heart beats for?
Why you always here, complaining in my ear
Singing I could give you so much more?
Why do you persist to possess my kiss
When she's the one your heart beats for?
Sucker, feel I can't keep up with your indecisive touch
It's too late to make up your mind
I left a while ago since then I'm much less cold
You chose her to keep you warm at night
Never asked for your attention
So why you think I owe you something?
I've seen your games before so give them all to her
I'm bored of you
Why you always here, complaining in my ear
Singing I could give you so much more?
Why do you persist to possess my kiss
When she's the one your heart beats for?
Why you always here, complaining in my ear

Singing I could give you so much more?
Why do you persist to possess my kiss
When she's the one your heart beats for?
Is it because my love is better than hers?
My kiss is sweeter than hers?
My touch is softer than hers, oh?
I bet you thought that you could have
Best of both worlds
But you can give it all to her

Why you always here, complaining in my ear
Singing I could give you so much more?
Why do you persist to possess my kiss
When she's the one your heart beats for?
Why you always here, complaining in my ear
Singing I could give you so much more?
Why do you persist to possess my kiss
When she's the one your heart beats for?
Why you always here, complaining in my ear
Singing I could give you so much more?
Why do you persist to possess my kiss
When she's the one your heart beats for?
Why you always here, complaining in my ear
Singing I could give you so much more?
Why do you persist to possess my kiss
When she's the one your heart beats for?
She's the one your heart beats for
I could give you so
