Better Than Anything Else

The Sleeping

Something better now, something better now awaits.
This wasn't the end, with you we carry on.
Well I never had a chance, never had a chance, to tell you.
To tell you your friendship was better than anything else.
Why?
The ones that we needed, the ones that we're losing.
Why doesn't this make sense at all?
I hope you're listening.
Why?
The ones that we needed, the ones that we're losing all of.
The ones that we're losing, all of.Now I sit alone, now I sit alone, in pain.
Wishing you were here. you had so much going on.
Well I never had a chance, never had the chance, to tell you.
Your friendship was better than anything else.
Why?
The ones that we needed, the ones that we're losing.
Why doesn't this make sense at all?
Oh I hope you're listening.
Why?
The ones that we needed, the ones that we're losing all of.
The ones that we're losing, all of.
The one
Does this make sense to you?Something better now, something better now awaits.
This wasn't the end, with you we carry on.
Well I never had a chance, never had a chance, to tell you.
To tell you your friendship was better than anything else.
Why?

Songwriters
Cameron Keym, Douglas Michael Robinson, Joseph Philip Zizzo, Salvatore MignanoPublished by Lyrics Â© Another Victory Publishing

Lyrics provided by https://damnlyrics.com/