Lorraine

OZMA

There's just one thing I couldn't find
One girl who couldn't be mine
She's in love with Calvin KleinI know she could have anyone of these boys
Here I'm playing with my baby toys
I'm rocking out but I'm just making noise.Sixteen years and what do you get?
Another ex and deeper in debt.
I've done all my time and I've placed all my bets.People say that L.A. is a dive.
But living ain't that hard if you know you're alive
We still party like it's 1955.(Chorus)
Lorraine, Lorraine, my destiny.
this song is over without you so I'm singing this refrain to you.There's just one thing I couldn't find
One girl that couldn't be mine.
She's in love with Calvin Klein.I know she could have any one of these boys
Here I'm playing with my baby toys.
I'm rocking out but I'm just making noise.(Chorus)
(Chorus)Until the (until the) night I realized
I still see the world through candy coated eyes(Chorus)
(Chorus)'Til the night I realized
I still see the world through candy coated eyes.

Lyrics provided by
https://damnlyrics.com/