Bounce

Sarah Connor

Bounce
I ain't gon' take this no more, no
No baby, yeah, no
Bounce baby out the door
I ain't gon' take this no more
Bounce baby out the door
Get up and move
Don't make me act a fool
Just bounce baby out the door
I ain't gon' take this no more
Bounce baby out the door
Get up and move
Don't make me act a fool
Just bounce!
Said you're going with your boys today and
Don't worry 'cause I'll be home late
But I know you're cheatin' out there, creepin'
You've been freakin' babe
So let me tell you how it's going to be, yeah
And you can run your game but not on me boy
So who the hell are you trying to kid
You know this is what I did, I
I called your pager and your two-way boy but no response
Start looking and I found you in some other woman's arms
Don't try to front boy 'cause I saw you there with my own eyes
Just get your stuff boy 'cause I'm tired of hearing all your lies
Bounce baby out the door
I ain't gon' take this no more
Bounce baby out the door
Get up and move
Don't make me act a fool
Just bounce baby out the door
I ain't gon' take this no more
Bounce baby out the door
Get up and move
Don't make me act a fool
Just bounce!
Baby boy, I know you'll never find
No stuff as good as mine

She can't work you like I did
You can look but you know I got that good shit, ah
I know that you hating it
But you better stay with the one you're with, yeah
You made your bed and
Now you have to sleep in it, baby
I called your pager and your two-way boy but no response
Just get your stuff boy 'cause I'm tired of hearing all your lies!
Get up and move
Get up and move
Just bounce!
So wait a minute Sarah give me a chance to explain
I was just talking to shorty, don't even know her name
Ain't looking for no one to come and take your place
Ain't no one out there baby that can fill your space
No need to find a nickel got a dime at home
Plus I love it every night the freaky way we bone
I ain't trying to get gone, ain't trying to play the roll
And I'd rather stay a part of your green eyed soul
I ain't gon' take this no more
Get up and move
Just bounce baby out the door
Get up and move
Just bounce!
Just bounce baby, bounce
Just bounce!
Just bounce!
