

F.A.L.L.I.n.G

Teen Hearts

Wake up
it's morning
still pouring it's time to fight another day never gonna get it right and why does it always feel like I'm falling to pieces i've got to find a better way not a good idea in sight why does it always take me so long to realize I'm wrong lately i just cant get it right i always feel like im F-A-L-L-I-N-G im falling apart slowly, but surely im dying woah-oh-oh doctor doctor save me now im falling apart can you please pick up the pieces and put me back together kelly you gotta wake up and realize there's more to life then giving up that's all i hear from anyone and why does it always seem like im dying a slow death another day another mess what am i suppose to do? why does it always take me so long to realize I'm wrong lately i just cant get it right
can you please pick up the pieces and put me back together woah woah doctor doctor save me now im falling apart can you please pick up the pieces pick up the pieces 'cause its plain to see that im falling apart F-A-L-L-I-N-G im falling apart woah woah F-A-L-L-I-N-G im falling apart save me now, save me now this medicine isn't working for me anymore x6
