Alone

Bullet for My Valentine

No more I'm taking this hatred from you

You make me feel dead when I'm talking to you

You'll take me for granted when I'm not around

So burn all your bridges 'cause I'm not going downThis time I will be heard, I'm not gonna burn

It's funny how the table, how the table turns

You fake condemnation, you pray for salvation

'Cause your heart is made of stone, you can die and rot aloneI hope you're unhappy and hurting inside

I want you to choke when you swallow your pride

Lay in your coffin and sleep with your sins

Give me the nails and I'll hammer them in right nowThis time you won't be heard, you are gonna burn

It's funny how the table, how the table turns

You fake condemnation, you pray for salvation

'Cause your heart is made of stone, you can die and rot aloneYou fake condemnation, you pray for salvation 'Cause your heart is made of stone, you can die and rot aloneThis time you won't be heard, you are gonna burn

It's funny how the table, how the table turns

You fake condemnation, you pray for salvation

'Cause your heart is made of stone, you can die and rot aloneYou fake condemnation, you pray for salvation 'Cause your heart is made of stone, you can die and rot aloneYou can die and rot alone, just die and rot alone

This time you won't be heard This time you won't be heard This time you won't be heard
