Part One

Good Luck Mr. Gorski

the bottom the earth i have to fall but you really caught me you really caught me, dear at the bottom where I'd fallen. and slowly dear ask that you dance with me here with the shades down lights off
when i didn't know you
and everything i do
done badly
now I'll love you always even when i say
you distract me.
and sit out tonight in some strange place if we have no friends here well i had a few to begin with to wake next to you in the morning and good morning to you. how do you do?

hey, good morning to you!
more covers for you.
sleep soundly dear cause i have to go.
and I'll love you always.
when we leave this place and drive back to Carolina and down to Savannah and stay
