

Little by Little

Susan Tedeschi

(Written by Junior Wells) You stay out all night 'til the break of day

    Snap me up with everything I say

    Little by little, oh, I'm losin' you I can see

And bit by bit darlin', your love is slippin' away from me Oh, what you're doin' baby, don't you know it ain't right

    I wonder what your doin' that it takes all night

    Little by little, oh, I'm losin' you I can see

    And bit by bit, your love is slippin' away from me Now I say ohhhh...

    Oh now, ohhhhhh... I say ohhhhhh... Oh, I get so disgusted when I try to kiss you

    Just don't feel like it used to do

    Little by little, oh, I'm losing you I can see, oh, oh, oh...

And bit by bit darlin', your love is slippin' away from me Ohhhhhh... now i tried to trail you last night, in my car

    So scared I might find, just what I was looking for

    Little by little, oh, I'm losin' you I can see

    And bit by bit, your love is slippin' away from me Now I say ohhhh, baby that's the way I feel...

    Oh, I say ohhhh child, oh that's the way that I feel...

    I said ohhhhhh child, baby that's the... honey that's the...

    Ohhhhhh... lord... I say ohhhh child, baby that's the way I feel...

    Oh, I say ohhhhhh child, baby that's the way I feel...

    I said ohhhhhh child, baby that's the way I feel...

    Ohhhhhh... child...
